Faculty of Education MEd Bursaries 2027

Transforming Education for Sustainable Futures

We welcome studies in the following Sub-Themes:

1. Multilingualism and Learning
2. Decolonial Learning in Place and Time: Arts, Histories and More
3. Inter-disciplinary Curriculum Approaches for STEM Education
4. Education for Just and Regenerative Futures in Africa
5. Inclusivity in Higher Education and Schooling
6. Leadership, Learning and Innovation in Socio-Cultural Context
7. Philosophies for Transforming Education

Who is Eligible?

Bursaries can be used for full-time or part-time Master of Education studies in the Faculty of Education at Rhodes University, with on-campus and off-campus supervision, by South African and international students. Applications will be vetted based on merit and supervisor availability. Successful candidates will be invited to submit an online application to the university. Applicants who have already applied to Rhodes can indicate this on the Bursary Application \(Google\) Form.

How to apply?

Complete the Bursary Application \(Google\) Form with your personal and professional details. Attach certified academic transcripts of your relevant qualifications and marks. An Honours in an Education-related field, or equivalent experience, is required. Academic performance of 65% and above at Honours level is recommended. Write a two page mini-proposal in which you indicate which of the study fields (Faculty Research sub-themes) you would like to research, and what interests you about this topic. Your own thoughts would be more effective than an AI generated document.

Closing Date: 5 November 2026
